GOAT ISLAND MARINE

In addition to the different water activities at Goat Island, we also offer a team building workshop to help develop communication, problem solving and leadership skills.

During the one hour and 30-minute workshop, team members will construct a raft from provided materials and swim it around a designated buoy, before returning it to shore and deconstructing the pieces. This exercise is suitable for workplace and school groups, as well as other organisations, and can accommodate 4 to 40 people per workshop.

Guests may consider coupling the team building exercise with another Goat Island NZ water activity: Glass Bottom Boat Tour or Kayak & Snorkel Hire. Team building workshops must be booked in advance – please contact us to enquire about availability or tailoring a package to suit your group's specific needs.
